

Environmental Research and Services, an equal opportunity employer, seeks qualified applicants for the following position based in either Fairbanks or Anchorage, Alaska.

FIELD TECHNICIAN—VEGETATION/WETLANDS

JOB SUMMARY: ABR is seeking a Vegetation/Wetlands Technician to support field research projects throughout Alaska.

STATUS: Seasonal positions range from 1 to 4 months. Work typically begins in early June and ends in late August or early September. Deployments may require more than 14 days of consecutive work.

JOB RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Assist in collecting vegetation and soils data for long-term monitoring studies, mapping projects, wetland delineations, and land rehabilitation studies.
- Assist in field mobilization and demobilization, including managing field sampling gear.
- Record data digitally using tablets with customized data-collection apps.
- Review data for errors and completeness, in field and office settings.
- Participate in job-specific field-protocol training.
- Participate in safety training and follow ABR's safety policy.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- B.S. degree in a related field and/or previous experience as a field technician.
- Strong background in the identification of Alaskan vascular plants; expertise with nonvascular plants is helpful.
- Experience with quantitative vegetation sampling, soil characterization, and field wetland determinations.
- Ability to carry up to 50 lbs., excavate soil pits up to 50 cm deep, and work outdoors 10–12 hours per day in remote locations in bear country.
- Ability to travel in helicopters, small fixed-wing aircraft, and/or small boats.
- Ability to live and work cooperatively with others, to work independently when needed, and to maintain a positive attitude under a heavy workload and challenging outdoor conditions.
- Proof of eligibility to work in the United States is required if selected for hire.
- Valid driver's license is required.

WORK PERIOD: Approximately 1 June–1 September 2025. Field deployments may exceed two weeks at a time, with only short breaks between trips.

WAGE: $18–25/hour, depending on experience; overtime eligible. Room and board provided only while in the field.

CLOSING DATE: Open until filled. First review begins 1 February 2025.

CONTACT: Please e-mail resume, up to 3 professional references with phone numbers (prefer previous supervisors), and cover letter specifying dates of availability to hr@abrinc.com.
